

Cognovi Acquires New Client: Villa Technologies
For Immediate Release 10-10-2005

Houston, TX – Cognovi has announced today the addition of Villa Technologies to its client list. Villa Technologies is a Houston based custom software development firm specializing in the small to medium sized business market. Villa creates applications that help small business owners manage their time and business more efficiently.

Cognovi Communications is the innovative thought and creative solutions company helping clients achieve memorable, meaningful and measurable marketing. From strategy and planning, to content, design, new media and web/technology services, Cognovi offers a full array of services to suit the needs of small-medium sized businesses. Cognovi's offices are virtually located in Atlanta, Dallas, St. Louis, and Washington DC with headquarters in Houston. For more information, visit the company's website at www.cognovi.net.